

ALEX ADAM '07 AWARD

for summer projects in the arts

Informational Dinner

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 11th at 6pm
Rocky College Private Dining Room

with

Prof. Paul Muldoon (Director, Lewis Center for the Arts)
Prof. Michael Cadden (Theater and Dance)
Sam Zetumer '09 (2008 award winner)
Halcyon Person '10 (2008 award winner)

The Alex Adam '07 Award, made possible by a generous gift from his family and administered by the Lewis Center for the Arts, will provide support to undergraduates who want to spend a summer pursuing a project that will result in the creation of an original work of art. Princeton freshmen, sophomores and juniors are eligible for the awards, which will provide up to $7,000 in summer funding. There will be three award-winners in 2009.

At the dinner, Profs. Muldoon and Cadden will answer questions about the application process. Sam Zetumer '09 and Halcyon Person '10 will present some work from their projects, which will give a sense of the variety of activities that can be supported by the Alex Adam Award.

Space at the dinner is limited.

Please RSVP to pwelch@princeton.edu ...

Applications for the award must be submitted by February 16, 2009. Applications are posted on the Lewis Center for the Arts website http://www.princeton.edu/arts/lewis_center/student-awards/alex-adam-07-award/.